

Alexandra

Scientist

Johnson Matthey

What do you do in your job?

I find out about the properties of different materials.

I work with a team of people.

I work with computers.

What did you enjoy at school?

I liked maths.

I enjoyed trampolining and judo.

I loved singing and writing my own songs.

What are your hobbies?

I play the flute and the piano.

I love baking and sometimes take homemade cakes into work.

I volunteer for a charity called Mencap.

What do you need to be good at for your job?

I am good at science and studied it at school and university.

I need to be confident with computers.

I need to be very careful and make sure that my work is accurate.

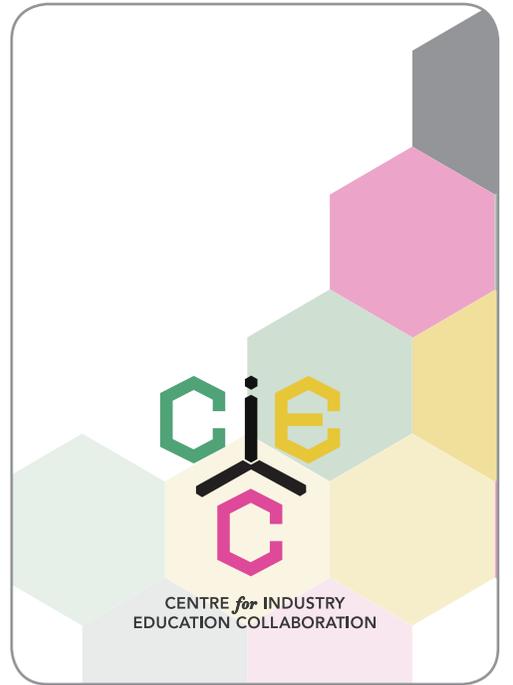

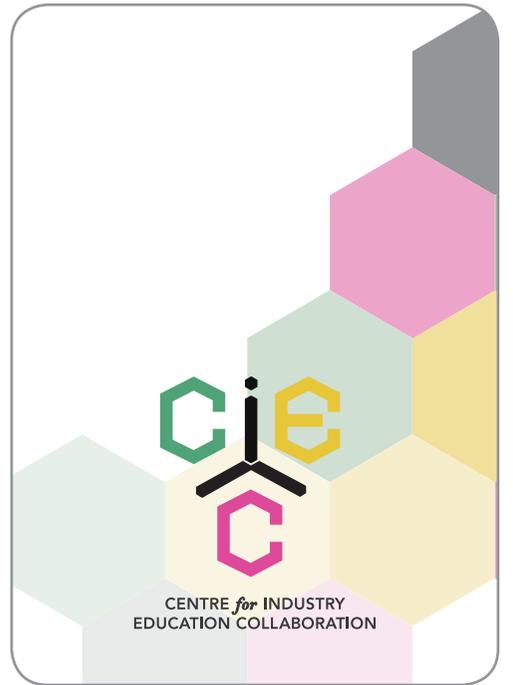

Aoife

Environmental Scientist

Johnson Matthey

What do you do in your job?

I make sure that everything that we do is environmentally friendly.

I make graphs and tables to show how much energy the factories are using.

I show how environmentally friendly different factories are.

What did you enjoy at school?

I enjoyed nature and nature walks.

I was interested in climate change and what we could do to stop it.

I enjoyed singing.

What are your hobbies?

I love the beach and going for forest walks.

I enjoy singing and performing.

I like cooking and baking.

What do you need to be good at for your job?

I need to be good at seeing patterns in information and data.

I need to be good at explaining my ideas to other people.

I need to enjoy science and finding out about the world.

Daniel

Manufacturing Apprentice

Johnson Matthey

What do you do in your job?

I am still learning so I get to work in lots of different places in the factory.

I operate computers which do 3D printing.

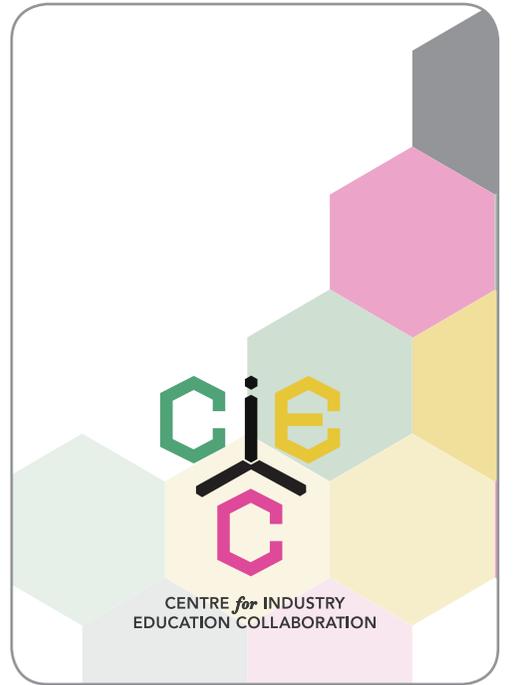

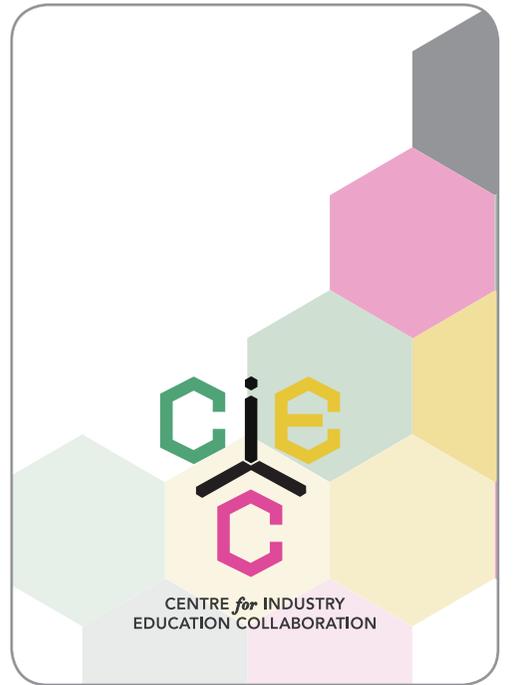

I still go to college to learn things which will help me to do my job.

What did you enjoy at school?

I loved playing football and played for my school team.

I was also very good at athletics and cricket.

I enjoyed science lessons.

What are your hobbies?

I still enjoy playing football.
I like meeting up with my friends.
I spend time playing computer games.

What do you need to be good at for your job?

I need to be willing to try out lots of new things and to keep learning.
I need to be good at listening to people explaining things to me.
I need to keep going to college to learn everything that I will need to do this job.

Jeremy

Site Manager
Johnson Matthey

What do you do in your job?

I make sure that everybody stays safe.
I am in charge of a team of people.
Sometimes I have to travel to other countries.

What did you enjoy at school?

I was always interested in finding out how things worked.
I was a cub, then a scout and ended up as a scout leader.
I enjoyed cookery lessons.

What are your hobbies?

I love spending time with my two daughters.
I enjoy rock climbing and have been helping my daughters to learn how to rock climb too.

What do you need to be good at for your job?

Maths is very useful in this job.
I need to be good at listening to people and persuading them to do things.

